Powers

 - (a) to raise funds. In doing so, the charity must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
 - (b) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

 - i. A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.
 - ii. A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993.
 - iii. A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified in article 56.
- (c) Subject to article 7, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving:
 - i. a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;
 - ii. reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

Benefits and Payments to Charity Directors and Connected Persons

General provisions

- 7. (a) No director or connected person may:

- i. buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- ii. sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
- iii. be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
- iv. receive any other financial benefit from the charity; unless:
 - A. the payment is permitted by article 7b; or
 - B. the directors obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

In this article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(b) Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- i. A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity as a beneficiary provided it is available generally to the beneficiaries of the charity.
- ii. A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in section 73A to 73C of the Charities Act 1993.
- iii. Subject to article 7c a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person.
- iv. A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be 2% (or more) per annum below the base rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the directors.
- v. A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the director concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- vi. A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 7(b)iii if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (c) i. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between:
 - A. the charity or its directors (as the case may be); and

- B. the director or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
- ii. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- iii. The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- iv. The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- v. The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.
- vi. The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.
- vii. A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 7a.
- (d) In sub-clauses 7b to 7c, “charity” shall include any company in which the charity:

 - ii. The directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.
 - iii. The directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The directors’ decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.

- (b) The directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership.
- (c) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if:

- (c) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. - (c) i. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
- ii. If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

- (d)
 - i. A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.

 - ii. appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of Proxy Notices

21. (a) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.
